TEN MOST IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS

- Chapman S. Public Health Advocacy and Tobacco Control: Making Smoking History. Oxford: Blackwell, 2007. ISBN 9781405161633 [Citations:155]
1a: Japanese translation (2009) by Eiji Yano. Tokyo: Shino Harashinsha Co ISBN978-4-88412-332-1

Comment: 155,000 words in two parts. The first analyses the most important tasks facing global tobacco control in the 21st Century. The second is an A-Z practical guide to tobacco control strategy.
 Reviews: "Throughout his career, Simon Chapman has viewed the field of tobacco control from 30,000 feet with some of the most penetrating insights academicians have to offer. Yet he's also battled in the trenches, leading the troops in creative and intelligent assaults on a true Goliath of an enemy. A voracious consumer of everything Chapman authors, I was fascinated, educated, and occasionally entertained by this broad and deep "manual" of how to do tobacco control in the 21st century."
 Kenneth E. Warner, Dean and Avedis Donabedian Distinguished University Professor School of Public Health, University of Michigan

"Simon Chapman's analysis provides the road map of what needs to be done, how it needs to be done and that it needs to be done with a sense of urgency. It is a required reading for all those who want to make a difference in the lives of many, especially our children."
 Jeffrey Wigand, MA, Ph.D., MAT, Sc.D.aka "The Insider"

later by a writer in the Lancet as one of two books that should be read by anyone wanting to communicate more effectively with the press. (Lancet 1998;351:1596)

"We would send out a book list, of two books. The first [would be] Strunk and White's The Elements of Style. The second would be The Fight for Public Health. This under used book ... shows how a little understanding of media processes becomes a powerful tool for public health – from article in Lancet 1998;351:1596 on how doctors can better communicate with the public.

Comment: Detailed analysis of the advocacy process that preceded and followed the 1996 Port Arthur massacre, leading to radical changes in Australia's gun laws.

"The publication of this book confirms Simon Chapman's place as Australia's pre-eminent public health lobbyist and has lessons for every country in the world ..." Review in: Aust NZ J Public Health 1999;23:110. "... a model to some of us in the criminal justice field of how to move beyond research and scholarship, into advocacy for change." Review in: Current Issues in Criminal Justice 1999;10:330-3. "He lays bare the bones of advocacy on both sides of the gun control debate and shows that understanding the opposition and getting the facts right are key to any public health change. If he ever wants a new career he could star as a general; until then I am glad he is wearing the white hat." Review in BMJ 1999;319:1999.

4. Freeman B, Chapman S, Rimmer M. Review: The case for plain packaging of tobacco products. Addiction 2008; 103:580-590. [Citations:116]

Comment: The most cited paper on tobacco plain packaging, preceded the passage of historic legislation in Dec 2011.

5. Chapman S, Mackenzie R. The global research neglect of unassisted smoking cessation: and consequences. PLoS Medicine 2010; 7(2): e1000216. doi:10.1371/journal.pmed.1000216. [Citations:140] 40,193 views at Jan 1, 2015. 26th most cited paper of 865 published in PLoS Med since Feb 2010.

Comment: Widely discussed critique of the research neglect of unassisted smoking cessation and the dominance of medicated approaches.

6. Chapman S, Borland R, Brownson R, Scollo M, Dominello A, Woodward S. The impact of workplace smoking bans on declining cigarette consumption in Australia and the USA. Am J Public Health 1999;89:1018-23. [Citations:254]

Comment: Meta-analysis of all studies examining the impact on continuing smoking from workplace smoking bans. I was second author on the first cohort study to examine this phenomenon. Recently named in list of ten most important papers on passive smoking.

7. Leask J, Chapman S. "An attempt to swindle nature": press reportage of anti-immunisation, Australia 1993-97. Aust NZ J Public Health 1998;22:17-26. [Citations:81]

Comment: The first international study of the way the anti-immunisation lobby argues its case in the media.

8. Chapman S. Unravelling gossamer with boxing gloves: problems in explaining the decline in smoking. BMJ 1993;307:429-32. [Citations:99]

Comment: Detailed critique of "hypodermic" causal attribution reductionist models in tobacco control evaluative studies.
